Yet the same urgency is strangely missing in dealing with world poverty and the ecological and environmental crisis. In a no-holds-barred analysis of our desperate historical situation, Prof. Conleth D. Hussey, traces its origin to the ideology spawned by the physics of Sir Isaac Newton which culminated in Thatcher’s spine chilling utterance ‘There is no society, only individual men and women, and families’. Hussey argues that the current model does not need adjusting, it needs replacing a new economic model is proposed which is unashamedly based on the universal democratic ideals of the 200 year old revolution in - of all places - Haiti!	General Public ALSO SUITABLE FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL PUPIL PLACES STILL AVAILABLE
