

Limerick Georgian Quarter
CHRISTMAS MARKET

Limerick to hold Ireland's first ever Georgian Quarter Christmas Market

Friday 20th November - 3.30pm-7pm

Saturday 21st November 12-5pm

Sunday 21st November 12-5pm

Shoppers will be able to enjoy the feel of a small village within the heart of bustling Limerick this festive season as the city opens Ireland's first ever Georgian Quarter Christmas Market.

No1 Pery Square Hotel and Spa in Limerick's historic Georgian area is set to host a unique market with picturesque stalls offering traditional handcrafted gifts including jewellery, toys, Christmas cards, dolls and candles.

Traditional foods, Christmas puddings, meats, sweets, breads, pastries and other festive goodies will also be on offer complimented by artisan cuisine and organic produce from Slow Food Limerick.

A truly continental atmosphere will be conjured up by the lights, sounds and smells of this unique spectacle while children from St Michael's School will sing traditional Christmas carols to add to the occasion.

The Limerick Georgian Quarter Christmas Market will be open from 3.30pm-7pm on Friday November 20th and between 12-5pm on Saturday and Sunday, November 21st and 22nd.

It is organised by No1 Pery Square Hotel and Spa, supported by Shannon Development and in association with Slow Food Limerick.

"This is the perfect opportunity to showcase Georgian Limerick at Ireland's first Georgian themed market," said Patricia Roberts, proprietor, No.1 Pery Square Hotel and Spa. "Our Christmas market will feature Ireland's finest food, arts and crafts and lots of gift ideas for the festive season."

Local artists will also display their work on the railings of Limerick's award winning People's Park and unique art gifts will be available to purchase.
